

Behavior Contract

Name of son or daughter: _____

Date: _____

Note: Below are the areas where _____ needs to change and grow the most. Implement this contract for about three months; if no change is seen, re-evaluate the contract. Remember, correction is not condemnation — discipline is actually a form of discipleship. Instruction and correction are a major part of becoming a man who is a responsible adult. Self-control, after all, is one of the fruit of the Spirit.

Reset for Complaining: If your child complains about his correction, the consequence resets and he has to complete it all over again.

Key Verse: “When I became a man, I put away childish things.” —1 Corinthians 13:11

Biblical Instruction	Desired Behavior	Correction & Consequences
1. Obedience & Respect for Parents and Sibling(s) Ephesians 6:1–3	General obedience with a respectful attitude.	Decide this with your child: _____ _____ _____ _____
2. Lying Exodus 20:16	Telling the truth.	Work on this with your child: _____ _____ _____
3. Work Habits 2 Thessalonians 3:10; Colossians 3:23–24	Responsibilities: room cleaned by breakfast; take out garbage;	Work on this with your child: _____ _____ _____
4. _____ Scripture:	Responsibilities: _____ _____ _____ _____	Work on this with your child: _____ _____ _____ _____

Parent Signature: _____

Young Person’s Signature: _____